LEADING N.E. WOMEN’S ORGANIZATION CELEBRATES DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND INCLUSION
A Virtual Gathering to Spark Ideas on Economy, Equity, and Environment into Action

BOSTON, MA--New England Women in Energy and the Environment (NEWIEE) will celebrate its twelfth year of supporting the vibrant community of 1,000+ women professionals of all levels across the energy and environmental fields with its first ever virtual Fall Fête Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Sparkposium discussion, followed by small group breakout networking on Thursday, November 19th from 4:00 PM - 6:00 PM.

The afternoon will open with a yearly recap of NEWIEE activity, preview of 2021 priorities, and a much-anticipated conversation on Economy, Equity, and Environment with:

- Kathleen Theoharides, Secretary, Massachusetts Executive Office of Energy and Environmental Affairs (EEA)
- Tracy R. Babbidge, Esq., Bureau Chief, Bureau of Air Management, Connecticut Department of Energy and Environmental Protection (DEEP)
- Abby L Watson, Head of Government Affairs North America, Siemens Gamesa Renewable Energy

Following the talk will be small group breakout rooms facilitated by moderators who include speakers from NEWIEE’s 2020 "Women Shaping the Agenda" and "Ask Me Anything!" events.

"NEWIEE continues to spotlight the critical energy and environmental issues of our time, raising the tough questions that need to be addressed by our industry," said Mary Louise "Weezie" Nuara, NEWIEE President and State Policy Director for New England, Dominion Energy. "While we will miss the opportunity to connect in person, we look forward to our ability to gather virtually for this great annual celebration."

Tickets are on sale now. For more information, visit www.NEWIEE.org. Sponsorship opportunities are also available.
